This event usually draws a crowd. The committee will do our best to prevent any interference from well-meaning spectators. Please don't hesitate to tell one of us if you are experiencing a problem. Once you've been tested, and have had time to unwind, I hope you won't mind answering an occasional question from our enthusiastic visitors.

We always hope for good weather, but hey, this is Seattle. Come prepared for anything. If you have an E-Z Up you should bring it along for shade. And don't forget to check your water equipment one last time.
